Coast Guard Academy Program Offered

Academy Introduction Mission (AIM) assists the U.S. Coast Guard in getting qualified candidates for the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn.

The Academy is the only one where admission is through individual application and the College Board examinations (SAT or ACT).

Interested high school juniors in the area are invited to apply to Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 4-9 (Genesee Lake) by contacting Jack Meekin at 243-3479. Information may also be obtained from school counselors.

Collegians Get Top Honors at Geneseo

Four Dansville students have been named to the Dean's List for academic achievement during the fall semester at Geneseo State University College.

They are Nora Giampa of 92 Redbud Drive, a senior majoring in psychology, 3.78 average; Kristen Grant of Barber Road, a sophomore majoring in speech, 3.94 average; Kristine Shay of Greenmount Ave., a senior majoring in sociology, 3.68 average; and Lori Waterhouse of 19 Clinton St., a senior majoring in psychology, 4.0 average.

Students Saluted

Three Dansville students have been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Alfred University for maintaining grade point averages of 3.3 or better.

They are Alan Wing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wing of Harter Road, a senior in the College of Business Administration; Matthew Quibell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Quibell of 25 Gibson St., a freshman in the College of Ceramics; and Scott Englert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Englert of 4 Elm Park a freshman in the College of Ceramics.

Student To Sing At Festival

Dansville senior vocalist Mark Hussey has been selected to attend the Area All-State Festival at the Ithaca College School of Music Feb. 5 and 6.

Hussey received a 5A solo rating for his performance of Robert Schumann's "Die Heiden Grenadiere" last year which made him eligible for the All-State Festival. He was evaluated in the areas of tone, intonation, technique, diction, accuracy and interpretation.

Mark is the son of Elementary Principal Nancy Hussey and High School math and science teacher Robert Hussey. They reside on Park Avenue.

The student performed in area All-Country Festivals in the spring of 1986 and 1987. He has been involved in Rotary Summer Theater, school plays and presently is captain of the wrestling team, on the cross country team and works as a cashier at Tops.

The Festival Concert is Saturday Feb. 6 at 3 p.m. Tickets are $3.00 and will be available at the door.

Plan Dog Races At Scout Camp

The region is about to experience a unique activity—the Camp Gorton Sled Dog Competition.

Scheduled for Sunday, the day-long event will begin at 9:30 a.m. at Camp Gorton on Waneta Lake. The race is open to the public free of charge and will feature seven different competitions.

There will be two, three-to-four, and five-to-six dog team races, Kid and Mutt, Skijoring (cross country skier pulled by one dog), weight pulls and junior (youth) races.

This competition draws entrants from all over the northeast. The entry roll is expected to be 10 to 20 semi-professional teams.

Those spectators interested in the sport and newcomers to sled dog racing will be able to question competitors who "love to talk about their dogs, sled and racing." Warm shelter and refreshments are available.

This event is sponsored by the Steuben Area Boy Scout Council, the Seneca Siberian Husky Club, the Exploring Officers Association, Corning Agway, Toban Kennels, and Dansville Feed Center.

In case of how snow, the race will be rescheduled for Feb. 7 at the same location and time.

Teenager Pageant Date Scheduled

The 1988 Miss Upstate New York Teenager Pageant is scheduled Saturday, Feb. 27, at Greece Arcadia High School.

Pageant director is Tami Farnand, granddaughter of Robert and Laura Sahrle of Dansville.

The event is open to girls 13 to 18 years of age in the counties of Livingston, Monroe, Genesee, Wayne, Ontario, Erie and Niagara. Further details are available by calling the director at 621-6281.

Plan Big Event For Girl Scouts

The Dansville Division of the Girl Scouts will have a "Lock-In" at the Senior High School Sunday, Feb. 14, and Monday, Feb. 15.

The event begins Sunday at 1 p.m. and ends Monday at 10 a.m. Some of the events scheduled include a Soek Hop with a live D.J., a lip synch contest, swimming, aerobics, skin care and make-up, international booths, songs and games.

Cost for the event is $1.00. For more information contact Joanne Young at 335-3784 or Pauline Halbert at 335-2074.

Lions Club Speaker

Robert Wiggins, assistant Livingston County district attorney, will be guest speaker at this evening's meeting of the Dansville Lions Club in Old Madrid restaurant. He will present a program on "African Country of Kenya."
